WORKSHOP ON EFFECTIVE LEARNING TECHNIQUES

On October 1st, 2024, the Department of BA English organized a workshop focused on innovative learning methods. The event began with a prayer led by Nagma from the 3rd-year BA English, followed by a warm welcome address by Rafiya Fathima, also from the 3rd-year BA English. The workshop was led by Coach Sachin Sharma, who emphasized the importance of making learning an enjoyable experience.

The session kicked off with a lively game called "Jailbreaker," led by the SUPERBHUMANS team, which underscored the importance of teamwork, strategic techniques, and the value of hard work. This activity energized the students and helped them understand how collaborative efforts can make challenging tasks more manageable. The game served as an ideal segue into the workshop, creating an atmosphere of engagement and enthusiasm.

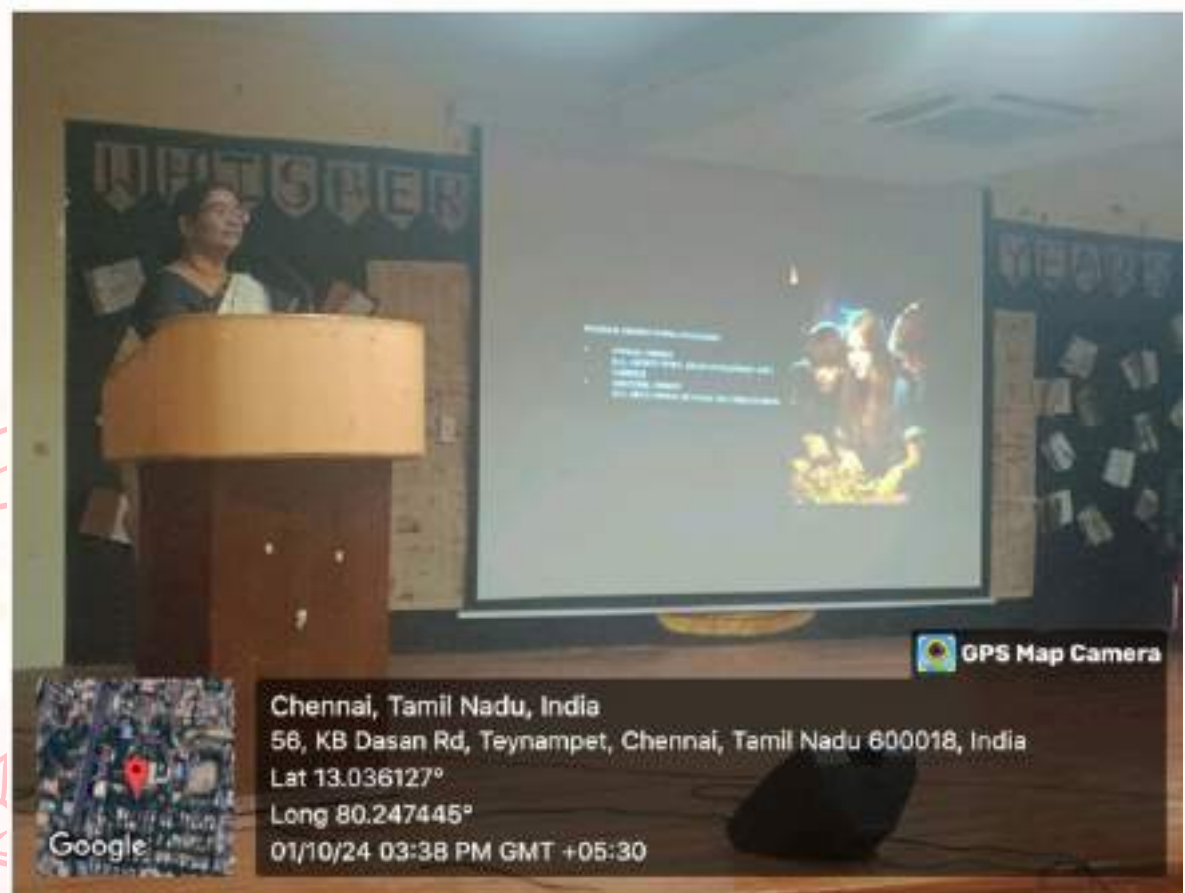

Coach Sachin, along with Coach Harshita, then introduced students to three effective study techniques: identifying keywords from a paragraph, visualizing concepts through diagrams, and creating mind maps. These techniques were applied to subjects that students found challenging, making the session both practical and interactive. The students were divided into six groups to practice these methods, fostering collaboration and hands-on learning. The coaches emphasized that these techniques help make information more accessible and memorable, turning learning into an active and enjoyable process.

The workshop concluded with Coach Sachin encouraging students to consistently apply these methods to succeed and find joy in learning. He emphasized that mastering these techniques was just the beginning of their academic journey. The session left students feeling inspired, equipped with new skills, and motivated to embrace learning in a way that's both effective and enjoyable.

PASTEUR CLUB

Menstrual Wellness

The Pasteur Club of the Department of Microbiology held its inaugural program on October 1, 2024, at 3:00 p.m. in the seminar hall, centered on the theme "Menstrual Wellness." The event was chaired by the chief guest, Dr. Indhra Nedumaran, and attended by esteemed dignitaries, including Dr. Amthul Azeez, Principal and Correspondent; Dr. S. Firdouse Jahan, Vice-Principal (Afternoon session); Dr. Summera Rafiq, Head of the Department of Microbiology; Dr. Jasmine Shahina, Assistant Head of the Department of Microbiology; Dr. W. Parveen, Associate Professor and Co-coordinator, Department of Microbiology; and Mrs. S. Irfana Tabassum, Associate Professor and Co-coordinator, Department of Microbiology.

The program commenced with a prayer led by Thasleem and Aaysha Banu A., creating a reflective atmosphere. Following this, Mrs. S. Irfana Tabassum introduced the chief guest, Dr. Indhra Nedumaran, detailing her notable career and contributions to women's health. She emphasized the importance of addressing menstrual health and highlighted the Pasteur Club's role in promoting health awareness.

Dr. W. Parveen then provided an overview of the club's objectives and mission, outlining its focus on fostering health education among students. Arifa Begum J., President of the Pasteur Club, presented the annual report, sharing the club's achievements and future plans.

As a gesture of appreciation, the Principal presented a box of dry fruits to Dr. Indhra Nedumaran. In her keynote address, Dr. Nedumaran spoke on various health topics, including adolescence, the hypothalamic-ovarian axis, PCOS, cervical cancer prevention, breast cancer awareness, and the importance of healthy lifestyle choices for menstrual wellness.

Her insights captivated the audience and provided valuable information on these critical topics.

The induction ceremony for newly elected Pasteur Club members followed, with Dr. Nedumaran presenting badges to the new members, encouraging them to lead with enthusiasm and uphold the club's mission. This marked the beginning of their journey as representatives of the Pasteur Club. After the induction, Dr. Summera Rafiq presented a memento to the chief guest, expressing gratitude for her inspiring address and support.

The program concluded with a vote of thanks by Humaira T., the club's Treasurer, who acknowledged the efforts of all the dignitaries, faculty, and students in making the event a success. The event ended with a patriotic rendition of the National Anthem by the students of the Department of Microbiology.

DEPARTMENT OF ELECTRONICS AND COMMUNICATION SCIENCE

The Department of B.Sc. Electronics and Communication Science organized an awareness program on "Electro Tech Trash" on October 4, 2024, from 11:30 a.m. to 2:15 p.m. The event was honored by the presence of Mr. M. Srinivasan, DGM-Business Promotions at Quality Business Systems, as the chief guest.

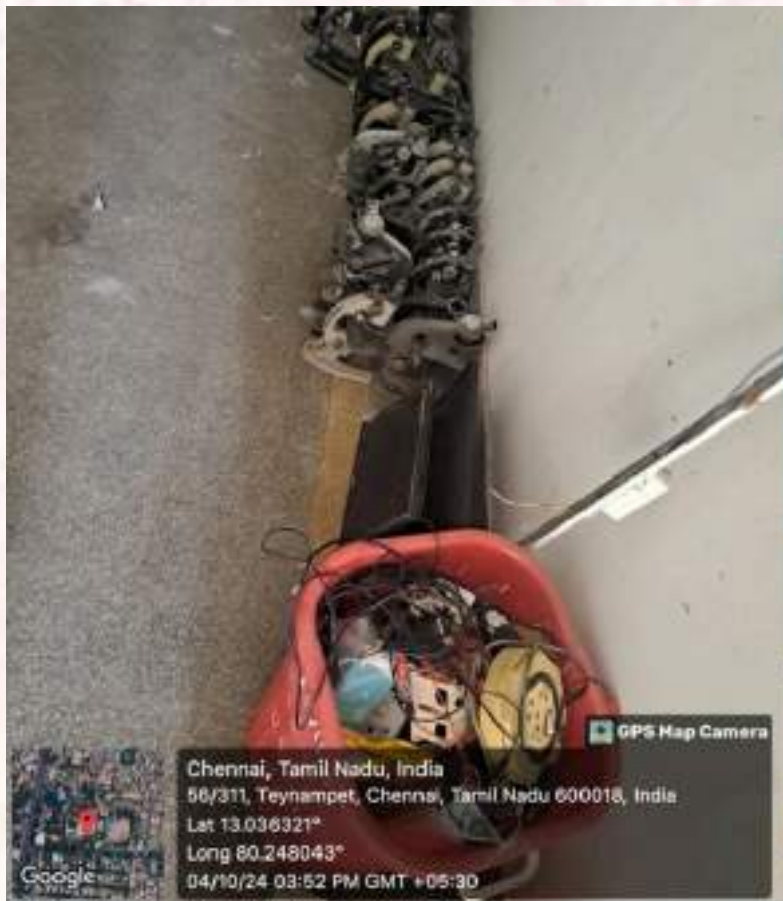

The ceremony began with opening remarks by Dr. M. Giruba, Assistant Professor in the Department of Electronics and Communication Science, followed by a prayer led by Ms. Fouziya Begum, a second-year student. Dr. J. Sherin Percy Prema Leela, Associate Professor in the department, delivered the welcome address. Mr. M. Srinivasan was then introduced, and a token of appreciation was presented to him by the Head of the Department, Dr. R. Vajubunnisa Begum.

In his address, Mr. Srinivasan warmly greeted the audience and presented a PPT titled "How to Remove E-waste." He discussed the different types of e-waste and the hazardous elements they contain. He also engaged with the students, addressing their questions and concerns regarding the casual disposal of e-waste in public spaces. Mr. Srinivasan explained that while complete prevention is challenging, efforts can be made to significantly reduce e-waste.

The department organized a poster presentation competition for students from both the forenoon and afternoon shifts. In addition, e-waste disposal bins were placed across the college campus, encouraging faculty, staff, and students to discard their electronic waste responsibly. Through these efforts, the department collected approximately 600 kilograms of e-waste, which was then handed over to Victory Recovery and Recycle Technologies India Pvt. Ltd. for recycling.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks by Mrs. N. Muthulakshmi, Assistant Professor in the Department of Electronics and Communication Science, followed by the national anthem.

Key message of the event: "Don't trash your e-waste. Reduce, reuse, and recycle it."

Anti-Drug Awareness Rally.

The Anti-Drug Club, in association with the National Service Scheme (NSS) of Justice Basheer Ahmed Sayeed College for Women, organized an Anti-Drug Awareness Rally on October 1, 2024, within the college campus. The rally aimed to raise awareness about the dangers of drug abuse and encourage students to actively participate in combating drug addiction.

The event was flagged off by Dr. Surendran Veeraiah, Professor and Head of the Department of Psycho-oncology and Resource Centre for Tobacco Control at the Cancer Institute (WIA), Chennai. Dr. Veeraiah emphasized the severe physical, emotional, and social consequences of drug addiction and stressed the importance of fostering a drug-free society, particularly among youth.

Approximately 50 NSS volunteers participated, carrying placards with impactful slogans like “Say No to Drugs” and “Choose Life, Not Drugs.” Their enthusiasm created a strong impact, encouraging conversations on the importance of avoiding harmful substances.

At the rally's conclusion, volunteers received participation certificates, underscoring the college's dedication to raising awareness on critical social issues and promoting community well-being.

Blood Donation Camp

On October 1, 2024, the NSS units of Justice Basheer Ahmed Sayeed College for Women (JBAS), in collaboration with the Bank of Baroda, organized a blood donation camp aimed at encouraging voluntary blood donation and addressing community health needs.

The camp was held at the Bank of Baroda in Alwarpet, with over 50 NSS volunteers and NSS Programme Officers from JBAS College actively participating, demonstrating their commitment to social responsibility and community service.

The background is a soft, light pink with a subtle floral pattern. There are delicate line art illustrations of leaves and branches in a slightly darker pink shade, positioned in the top right and bottom left corners.

The successful organization of this event not only underscored the importance of blood donation but also strengthened the bond between our college and the local community. We express our heartfelt gratitude to the Bank of Baroda for their support and to all the volunteers who contributed to this noble cause.

Global Hand Washing Day Celebration

On September 17, 2024, the NSS (National Service Scheme) units of Justice Basheer Ahmed Sayeed College for Women (JBAS) celebrated Global Hand Washing Day. This initiative aimed to raise awareness about the importance of hand hygiene and educate participants on effective handwashing techniques. The primary objective of the event was to highlight the role of proper handwashing in preventing the spread of infections and diseases. Through this educational activity, the NSS units sought to instill lifelong hygiene practices within the community.

The event attracted over 20 enthusiastic volunteers from various departments of JBAS College, whose participation demonstrated a commitment to public health and spreading awareness within their communities. The program included several activities designed to engage and educate the participants.

First, trained NSS volunteers demonstrated proper handwashing techniques, emphasizing key steps such as using soap, scrubbing for at least 20 seconds, and rinsing thoroughly. An interactive session followed, where participants were encouraged to ask questions and share their experiences related to hand hygiene, reinforcing the practice's importance in daily life. Additionally, informational materials, such as flyers and posters detailing effective handwashing procedures and the significance of hand hygiene, were distributed to all participants.

The event successfully raised awareness among the volunteers about handwashing as a preventive measure against illness. Participants expressed their commitment to practicing and promoting these hygiene practices within their communities.

The NSS units of JBAS College for Women effectively utilized Global Hand Washing Day to educate and engage volunteers in hand hygiene practices. This initiative not only benefited the participants but also aimed to extend the impact of this knowledge throughout the community, fostering a culture of health and wellness.

On October 9, 2024, the NSS units of Justice Basheer Ahmed Sayeed College for Women (JBAS) celebrated Daan Utsav, an annual event embodying the joy of giving, widely recognized as India's festival of generosity.

This year, our NSS Programme Officers visited Nursery Government School in Teynampet, where they distributed pencil kits and chocolates to the children. The joy and excitement during this interaction created a memorable experience for both the children and our NSS Programme Officers. Following this, the team visited Annai Illam, an old age home in Teynampet, where they distributed gently used clothes collected from NSS volunteers.

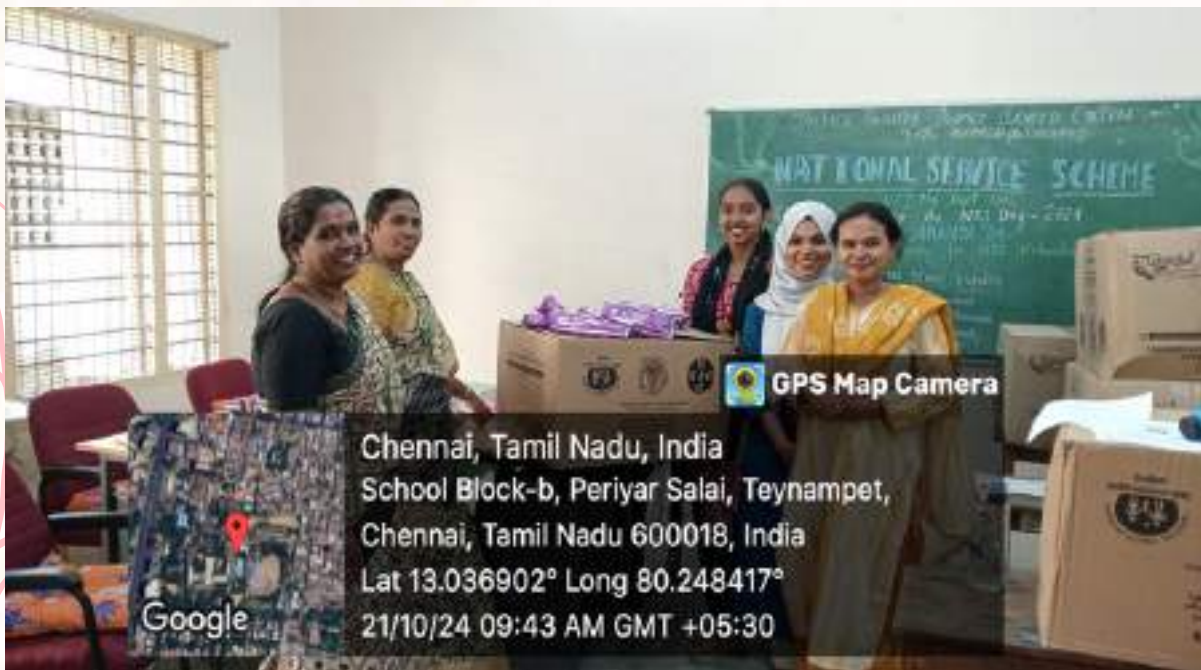

The interaction with the residents was heartwarming, and our NSS Programme Officers enjoyed engaging with them.

Events like Daan Utsav foster a spirit of empathy and community service. We believe that such initiatives not only benefit those in need but also enrich society as a whole.

NAPKIN DISTRIBUTION

On 18th October 2024, the NSS unit of JBAS College for Women organized a sanitary napkin distribution drive to promote menstrual health, hygiene, and empowerment. Collaborating with the Primary Health Centre, the initiative provided students with essential sanitary products. The distribution took place in two sessions, ensuring all students could participate. NSS volunteers managed the event, offering information on menstrual hygiene, proper usage, and disposal of sanitary products. The event aimed to improve access to hygiene products and foster open discussions on menstrual health, reflecting the NSS unit's dedication to student well-being and empowerment.

Rashtriya Ekta Diwas Pledge

On 31st October 2024, as per the circular from the University of Madras, all NSS volunteers were requested to take the Rashtriya Ekta Diwas pledge from home, as it was a holiday. The pledge served as a reminder of the importance of national unity and integrity and was celebrated in honor of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel's birthday, recognizing his significant role in uniting India. Volunteers were encouraged to gather their family members and those in their surroundings, lead them in taking the pledge, and ask them to repeat it. Many volunteers took the pledge individually, while some also gathered their families to participate together. The event aimed to strengthen the spirit of unity among individuals and promote national integrity.

Participation in RD-Preparade

The NSS, University of Madras, organized an RD-Preparade for NSS volunteers on 3rd October 2024 (Thursday) at 8:00 a.m. at the University Union Ground, Chetpet. Two NSS volunteers from our college, FN and AN, expressed their willingness to participate in the event, representing our institution. In addition to the volunteers, two NSS Secretaries and the NSS Program Officer also accompanied them to ensure proper coordination and support during the event. The event aimed to prepare the participants for the upcoming Republic Day celebrations, and the college sought the necessary approval for the participation of these individuals. The team attended the RD-Preparade with full enthusiasm and commitment, contributing to the success of the event.

ENVIRO CLUB

Wildlife Week Celebration

Wildlife Week is celebrated annually from October 2 to October 8. In honor of this occasion, the Enviro Club of our college organized a series of impactful activities aimed at raising awareness about wildlife conservation.

Club members crafted vibrant posters displayed throughout the campus, each emphasizing the importance of biodiversity and the protection of endangered species. These posters captured students' attention and sparked meaningful conversations on environmental responsibility.

An online Wildlife Week competition was also held, encouraging students to engage creatively and share their insights on conservation. Together, these activities fostered a deeper understanding of wildlife issues and inspired active student participation in conservation, making the celebration a meaningful success.

DEPARTMENT OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

World Students' Day

The Department of Business Administration commemorated World Students' Day on October 23, 2024, at 3:00 p.m. in the presence of esteemed guests, Dr. Sajida Begum (Assistant Professor, Department of Commerce, JBAS College for Women) and Dr. Sarwath Unissa (Dean & Head of the Department of English).

The event began with introductory remarks by Ms. Jasmine from III BBA-A, who hosted the program. This was followed by a prayer led by Ms. Fathima Akther of III BBA-B. Ms. Nilofer Nisha from III BBA-A welcomed the gathering on behalf of all dignitaries, staff, and students. Ms. Raheela provided a brief introduction about the guests, highlighting their achievements and successful events.

The National Talent Search program was organized by the Department of Corporate Secretaryship and Information System Management at Justice Basheer Ahmed Sayeed College for Women on October 24, 2024, at 3:00 p.m. This prestigious scholarship program, initiated by the Government of India, aimed to identify and nurture talented students across the country. Since its launch in 1963, the National Talent Search (NTS) has recognized and rewarded students for their exceptional intellectual abilities, encouraging them to pursue academic interests. In 2024, the program continued to adapt, addressing the evolving educational landscape and the needs of the student community.

The primary objective of the National Talent Search (NTS) was to recognize academic excellence by highlighting students with outstanding intellectual abilities. Additionally, the NTS provided financial support through scholarships, enabling deserving students to pursue higher education without financial barriers.

By motivating students to excel, the program fostered a culture of academic achievement.

Moreover, the NTS promoted inclusive education, ensuring that talented individuals from diverse backgrounds received equal opportunities to succeed. Ultimately, the program played a significant role in shaping the future of education and empowering the next generation of leaders in India.

This program proved to be a successful initiative by promoting inclusivity and diversity, thus providing equal opportunities for talented individuals from various backgrounds to grow into future leaders. The event made a profound impact on all participants and left a lasting impression.
